ROADTRIP
NATION
EDUCATION

HELLO

↪ NICE TO MEET YOU!

Roadtrip Nation Exploration is a self-discovery program for sixth- through eighth-grade students, which encourages them to explore different life pathways, reflect on their interests, and collaborate with peers.

Here's a bit about us: Since 2009, we've been creating self-discovery resources that empower students everywhere to create meaningful lives around their interests.

Love,

Roadtrip Nation Education

our goals

1. Discover different life experiences and pathways
2. Positively use collaboration and online research
3. Continue to engage students with their own unique interests

7 LESSONS & 1 PROJECT

Students explore Roadtrip Nation's vast Interview Archive to find Leaders who align with their own unique interests.

- Lesson 1: Define Your Own Road in Life
- Lesson 2: I Am An Individual
- Lesson 3: The Noise
- Lesson 4: A New Definition Of Success
- Lesson 5: Self-Doubt
- Lesson 6: Support Network
- Lesson 7: Discover Your Interests

Through creating a Virtual Roadtrip Project, students engage in real-world learning experiences where they apply what they've learned to their own lives.

THE ROADTRIP NATION EXPERIENCE

Define Your Own Road in Life

NATION

ROADTRIPNATION.ORG

Welcome!

The Roadtrip Nation Experience helps students define their own Roads by connecting their individual interests, as well as their educations, to the real world.

12 online lessons guide students through a journey of self-discovery. The Roadtrip Nation Experience culminates with the Roadtrip Project, giving students the framework to create their own local Roadtrip experiences.

We're excited for you to take part in the Roadtrip Nation Movement to help students define their own Roads in life.

Cheers,

Nathan, Mike, & Brian
Original Roadtrippers

Our Goals are to...

1. Show different life pathways that connect to individual interests.
2. Use collaboration, online research skills, and multimedia tools to prepare for the real world.
3. Build connectedness to school through lasting relationships with local Leaders and mentors.

Roadtrip Project

THE
STUDENT EXPERIENCE!

Online Instruction

Through the 12 lessons, students actively explore Roadtrip Nation's vast Interview Archive with Leaders who are doing what they love based on Interests (Medicine, Entrepreneurship, Art/Design) and Themes (Hard Work, Determination, Inspiration).

Student Journal

The companion journal includes supplemental hands-on activities to connect the online content in a tangible way.

Real-World Learning

The Roadtrip Project includes interest-based research, Cold-Calls, interviews with local Leaders, the use of multimedia to capture experiences, and self-reflection through writing activities.

The Roadtrip Nation Interview Archive

The Roadtrip Nation Interview Archive enables students to explore pathways aligned with their Interests. Over 3,500 video interviews feature Leaders across hundreds of industries who discuss the challenges they overcame to accomplish unique goals.

Students explore the Archive based on their Interests (Medicine, Business, Art, etc.), and Themes (Risk, Failure, Determination, etc.), discovering stories and pathways relevant to their own lives. This resource is a vehicle to equip all educators to become “Career Educators.” Bring the real-world straight into your classroom, library, counseling department, and beyond with content that connects the vast areas of study to real-life professionals.

Site-Wide Subscription Includes:

- One-year personal access for each student
- Access to the Roadtrip Nation documentary television series on public television (all seasons)
- Accompanying enrichment activity to reinforce concepts
- Broadcast licensing rights to play Roadtrip Nation content in classrooms, libraries, counseling centers, and beyond.

WHAT'S IN THE ARCHIVE?

We've gone on
52 ROADTRIPS & Interviewed
